Three little bears.
One with a light.
One with a stick.
One with a rope.
A spooky old tree.
Do they dare go into that spooky old tree?
Yes.
They dare.
Three little bears …
One with a light.
One with a stick.
One with a rope.
A twisty old stair.
Do they dare go up that twisty old stair?
Yes.
They dare.
Three little bears.
One with a light.
One with a stick.
And one with the shivers.
A giant key.
A moving wall.
Will the three little bears
go through that wall?
Do they dare go into that spooky old hall?
Yes.
They dare.
Three little bears.
One with a light.
And two with the shivers.
Great Sleeping Bear.
Do they dare go over
Great Sleeping Bear?
Do they dare?
Well …

They came into the tree.
They climbed the stair.
They went through the wall …
and into the hall.
So of course they went over
Great Sleeping Bear!
Three little bears …
without a light,
without a stick,
without a rope.
And all with the shivers!
How will they ever get out of there?
Up a ladder …
Through the floor …

Down a slide …
And out a door!
Three little bears running fast.
Home again.
Safe at last.
